Autistic Magical Girls: Short Battles

by MiaQc

Summary

Short scenes with the Autistic Magical Girls.

Magical Aella, Magical Petra, Magical Dayla and Magical Calida battle enemies with their powers.

- A translation of Magical Girls Autistes: Combats Courts by MiaQc

I'm Alice Lorange. Autistic. Transformed into Magical Aella, I face a giant.

<Aella!> My Trace, Heather, says mentally to alert me.

"I know! Aerial Saw..."

A round, green saw blade, made of cutting air, materializes.

"DOUBLE!"

It splits in two and they cut the flesh from the giant's ankles, but without cutting off his feet.

"It's not enough! Aerial Saw Storm!"

Several aerial saws appear and cut deeper and deeper into the flesh of the giant's ankles. It's a new attack. I scream with joy as his feet come off and the giant falls to the ground.

"Let's get it over with! GIANT SOUND ARIA!"

Two giant semitransparent speakers, round in shape and greenish in color, appear in the air. They cause a powerful sonic vibration that makes the giant explode. I find myself covered in blood and guts.

"YUCK!" I say, shaking myself, causing the guts to fall out, but I'm still covered in blood.

Heather congratulates me. In the end, I didn't have to use Breeze Whip.

I'm Alice Blondinka. Autistic. Transformed into Magical Dayla, I face a giant bat who must have been a vampire turned into a bat.

"Water Splash!" I say.

A jet of water appears and pushes the giant bat away from me.

"Water Vortex!"

A water vortex appears but fails to take the creature away. I make it disappear.

"Spicky Water Vortex!"

A blue, razor-bladed vortex appears, but it too is unable to take off the giant bat. I make it disappear. I grunt in frustration.

< Use your sword. > My Trace, Lisa, suggest.

"Ok. Water Sword Edge!"

A bluish sword appears in my right hand. It seems to be made of crystal, or at least a transparent material. I could attack the creature with my sword. Instead, I concentrate. Time to create a new attack.

"Ice of Sorrow..."

The sword glows and its blade is covered in ice. I let out a scream as I swung my sword in the creature's direction.

" RELEASE!"

A powerful ice attack emerges from the sword's blade and hits the bat, freezing it. After all, I have control over water and ice is a form of water. Smiling, I slice through the frozen giant bat, killing it while leaving blood behind. Lisa congratulates me on my victory.

I'm Alice Brown. Autistic. Transformed into Magical Petra, I face fast-moving creatures that look like cats, but cats with the head of a rat.

"Power of the Earth, Go!"

I raise my arm and reach for the sky with my right hand. A stalactite appears and falls, but doesn't touch any rat-cats.

"Mega Rock!"

A large rock falls from the sky. Rat-cats easily avoid it.

"My attacks are too slow!" I said in a panic.

< No. Try something else. > Says my Trace Jennifer.

"Okay. Earth, Pierce And Bury Them!"

The earth opens up beneath several rat-cats, stuffing them with spikes, and dragging them into the abyss before closing again. More remain.

"Good. It seems I have to create new attacks with my imagination.
Let's see..."

After all, our powers come from it and our Soul Affinity.

I raise both arms to the sky.

"Rock Storm..."

Then I hold them out to the rat-cats.

"SPREAD!"

Tons of rocks rise from the ground and hurtle towards the creatures. However fast they are, they are all crushed by the rocks. There's a bloody mess everywhere. I find it disgusting and Jennifer congratulates me.

***

I'm Alice Kurosawa. Autistic. Transformed into Magical Calida, I face a tentacled monster. Aya, my Trace, reassures me.

< This monster can't do anything to you! >

"I know. I wasn't thinking of manga for adults at all! Fire Orb, Rage On!"

A fire orb appears and explodes, injuring the monster, but nothing too serious.

"Fire Fury!"

A row of flames hurls itself at the tentacled monster. The creature struggles to free itself from the flames. It's not dead, but it's not strong either.

"Fire Arrow."

My red bow appears. It seems to be made of crystal or at least crystal-looking material. I grab it and shoot a flaming arrow at the monster. The monster absorbs it without trouble.

"That should finish you off. FIRE ARROW RAIN!"

A shower of flaming arrows shoots from my bow. The creature can't absorb them all and dies. The tentacled monster left no blood behind.

Just a kind of slimy jelly. Aya congratulates me on my victory.
